

Tapatoru Ako Professional Practice Award

Build a professional learning culture within your organisation and ensure staff have the knowledge, practice and values they need to support learner success.

The Tapatoru is:

- » a whole-organisation approach to capability building
- » a powerful reflective practice tool
- » grounded in mātauranga Māori, with a Tapa Tolu Pacific version available as well
- » a learner-centred framework, focused on meeting the holistic needs of learners

It will help your organisation to:

- » build staff capability in developing a values-based approach to teaching and learning
- » validate the expertise and achievement of your staff
- » develop a sustainable model for continuous professional development
- » achieve the TEC's targets of ending disparity and achieving equity
- » be recognised for your commitment to staff capability building

“For us it’s been a real organisational journey which has supported us to grow way beyond what the purpose of it was.”

– Lynette Donohoe, CEO, Solomon Group
